To walk from the parking lot to Wilson Hall:

From the JPA Parking Lot you will see a set of stairs going up to the street. Go across the crosswalk and up the stairs (or ramp) on the other side. The large building in front of you is New Cabell Hall; the next building to your right is Wilson Hall. It is easier to enter through the Cabell doors you see in front of you; go through the doors and up two stories to the 3rd floor, then turn left out of the stairwell (east) into the hallway, and follow this hall. The third floor of New Cabell connects to Wilson, and room 301 will be on your right after you pass some vending machines. Room 402 is one floor up.
