

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA SAILING ASSOCIATION

MOVIE - KINGSTON OLYMPIAD WILL be shown on this coming Tuesday, October 11 at 7:30 in the Newcomb Hall Ballroom. We do have it - it arrived the morning after we were to show it two weeks ago. BEER WILL BE PROVIDED FOR MEMBERS. Everyone is urged to come and bring a friend. Future events of this nature will be determinant on the attendance this Tuesday.

LESSONS - The first on-the-water lessons will be conducted this Friday, October 8. Additional instruction will be given Thursday and Friday the 14 and 15th. Interested members should meet on the Mem. Gym steps at 2:00. Those with cars and willing to teach are especially needed

HOME REGATTA - We will host our Fall Invitational at the Lake on Saturday, October 22. This is a S.A.I.S.A. points regatta so we expect at least 7 teams. Everyone is urge to come and watch or help. We will need people to help prepare the boats, run errands, serve as the race committee etc. Please contact John Dick or Charlie Krafft. The skippers meeting will be at 9:30 with the racing going on all day.

PARTY - The Sailing Association will sponsor a cocktail party following the regatta. It will begin at 8:30 at John Dick's house (225 14th st.). More later.

REGATTA RESULTS - To date we have sailed in the first two regatta's of the Fall season. On the 24th of last month we travelled to Davidson for the first points regatta. Charlie Krafft, Rick Stumph, John Westor, Bob Bloomer and Doug Werner sailed for Virginia. Charlie ended up in a three-way tie for second place while Bob Bloomer placed third in B division. Last weekend John Dick, Carolyn Bierly, Jenny Wilson and Warren Dahlstrom sailed in the Louis Webb Memorial Regatta. John Dick with crew Carolyn Bierly won with a lowpoint victory of 5½ points while Warren and Jenny placed fourth overall.

INTRAMURAL RACING - We are running an intramural racing program every Sunday starting from Mem. Gym at 10:30 (for rides). We get back early so you can study, go to church, drink beer or how ever else you spend your Sunday's. We hope to build this into an active program, so come out and sail!

CORRECTIONS - Any mistakes or deletions on the membership list or elsewhere should be brought to the Officers attention. Please contact Judy Wiegand, our Secretary.
