Regatta Results - The UVA Fall Regatta was held this past Saturday at Lake Monticello. Five schools competed in the event. Old Dominion University sailed consistently to top the Virginia sailors, who placed second. Duke and Davidson tied for third, and NC State was fifth. Sailing for Virginia were Charlie Krafft and Charlie Altreuter in the 'A' division. John Dick skippered the 'B' boat. Crewing were Kim Thornton, Jill Barbehenn, and Jenny Wilson. Saturday night festivities were in order at John Dicks house for another famous Sailing Club Party. Future regattas include Duke, Team Champs at Charleston, and the Dinghy Champs. Interested racers should contact the Vice-commodore, Charlie Altreuter. (296-1898)

Beginners Lessons - Classroom lessons this week, Thursday, Oct. 19, at 7:30 in room 4A in Newcomb Hall. Friday afternoon sailing is reserved for beginners and those who would like to teach the beginners. This has to be done because of the limited number of boats. We leave Mem Gym at 2:15 and are usually back by 6:00. Check U-notices in the Cavalier Daily for future dates for beginners lessons.

Care of Boats - To insure that a maximum number of boats are available, we insist that any damage or the notice of broken gear be reported to one of the officers. So far, breakdowns have been minimal.

SAILORS!!

FOR THE HARD CORE...

We'll keep sailing every weekend until exams unless Lake Monticello freezes over first. There are rides going out to the lake Friday afternoon! Meet at Mem Gym at 2:00. If you can't make it, we'll be going out on Saturday too. Mem Gym, 1:00. We may get a few races off if there is any interest. Call John 295-1249 for any questions.

REGATTA RESULTS

Snow flurries and strong winds with gusts of 40 was the weather broadcast at Duke this past weekend where the SAISA championships for the northern division were sailed. It was a bit nippy for the sport of sailing but Charlie Krafft, our racing commodore, sent down a tough team who have been bred from age 2 to laugh at such minor inclements. John Dick, a laser fiend, and Mark Winmill, a renown pain-loving finn buff, were our team skippers and Anne Jones and Carolyn Brierly, both brilliant on the foredecks of any sloop, provided an excellent crew. With so much potential, it seemed a shame that UVa. finished 6th out of 8 overall. Due to some misunderstanding, Mark Winmill punted 2 races adding 20 points to our score. The chill got to John Dick somewhat because his style was not as strong as usual. Maybe, (just an editorial aside) it's time the racing team threw in their sailing gloves and picked up their ski mittens.
