I want to apologize for the slow start that the club has gotten this year. Although things beyond our control have caused the bulk of the delay, I admit that if I had been able to work harder things could have started about a week earlier.

The Lake Monticello Owner's Association forgot to consider our request to use the lake at their September board meeting, so it had to wait until the October 18th meeting. (I mailed the request in July.) I know that it passed, because we were allowed to register our boats, but we still have not received official, written permission. (I don't think that that's a problem.)

There is one boat in the water, and I intend to get more in this weekend. Sailing can and will continue until it becomes so unbearable that no more people go out. I know that Southerners think that water freezes at 50 degrees, but if you bundle up and sail safely (keep dry) it is enjoyable throughout the year. (The romors about icebergs are largely unfounded.)

Anyway, I'm sorry if anyone feels that they've gotten a raw deal, or that we haven't worked hard enough for you. If anyone really feels that way, call me and will talk about it, or better still, volunteer and help us out.

Please Remember — The rules:

YOU Must have the motor boat running whenever someone is sailing. Be kind. If you go out and someone is already running the boat, volunteer to take your turn, it's not too bad.

Please try to keep things neat. Throw away any trash that you produce.

Do not drink. You are out—no explanation, no refund— if an officer catches you. I suggest that you get good and cold, then hit a bottle of scotch at home.

Suggestions et alii :

Remember that we leave from Mem Gym, the small round parking lot, at 2:30 Friday afternoon. You can always go up to the lake, so don't worry if that is not a good time for you. Any other time, I suggest that you get three people, so that you can sail the boat (2), and run the motor boat (1).

Lessons — Call Rob Michaelson. He has been busy helping us win, well, tie for first place with ODU, in SAISA's northern division, fall series. Now that the season is mostly over, he will have more time to set up formal lessons. There will almost always be someone at the lake qualified to give at least informal lessons on Fridays.

Maybank Hagood and anyone else with a car + trailer hitch, please volunteer to drive the new boats to the lake some day, there's $3 in the deal. Call me.

Obituary— After the party at "Rock's-on-the-Range", RK unknowingly volunteered to drive an un-tapped keg home for the night. After a sharp right onto Emmet St. in front of the Ed School, the disobedient rascal popped open her hatch-back and began a frenzied wallow in the traffic. When it finally stopped, not having the strength to lift the keg, RK rolled it into the bushes. The next day being a football Saturday, we naturally never saw the keg again, and it is assumed to be dead.

By the time you all get this letter, we will have competed in the SAISA sloop championships in Solings at Charleston. Great boat, town, and competition. I hope that we did well.

This is getting long winded, so I'll stop here. If you've any questions or suggestions, please call me. I'm not always home, nor do I always get the messages intended for me, but most of the time I will and can help you. See you at the Lake.

Your fearful leader,

Quinn.

P.S. Anyone interested in sailing gear or clothing? If so, we've been offered a 15-30% discount from Musto & Hyde and International Sailing Products. Orders must be prepaid and go through me, but I don't charge anything.

P.S.S. Sorry if I've spelled anything wrong. I'm really bad at that, and I'm an English major. It causes me all sorts of trouble.
