Hard-core Lake Monticello cop, Ossiffer Skeen, in a recent interview after receiving his Saudi Arabia mobilization order said, "Those Iraqis should be less trouble than those college sailing people...But they'd darn well better have license plates on their tanks or else!!!!"

Welcome Back Y'all ... so much for Lake Monticello news, huh! We're sliding out of these freezing temperatures and preparing for another semester of sailing at that oh so much fun pond of excitement... you guessed it ... LM. While we're waiting we need to take care of some bureaucratic business. First of all that means officer (and we ain't talking LM police!) elections ... yes people are planning on graduating and that means your chance for Hitler (or Saddam) style Tyranny is at hand. Nica and Jeremy are leaving and therefore two positions are vacant and awaiting your dictatorship. Who knows; maybe you could even organize the invasion of Fluvanna county. If interested, please contact one of us very very very soon. Elections are planned for Friday February 8th (same time as the party, so celebrate your new benevolent dictatorship in style.) The Second piece of bureaucracy to impart is that many of you signed up as half year members and now is the time to renew your membership should you wish to continue to be a member - just come on by to the party. Yo.

PARTY ... did someone say PARTY? Yes, you heard it right. Come celebrate Groundhog day the way it should be celebrated. Actually, it's a week late, but stop whining. In honor of elections, we expect a raging game of "Presidents and Assholes," so don't miss it. It's at Craig's house (see map) on Friday the 8th of good ole February at 9 PM. After the rousing success of the Chili cook-off last fall, we expect riot police to show up to protect the surrounding seven counties, so get there early. By the way, if you didn't make it to the chili cook off (and you didn't - so feel guilty...) there will be an opportunity to make up the opportunity "Texas Chainsaw Massacre" style. Just bring a chainsaw and an unsuspecting room-mate and we'll make the best chili east of the Mississippi!!!! For you pacifists, come dressed as your favorite "Love Boat" star (not necessarily from the permanent cast either!!!) Go wild!

On the waterfront... The same boats are still at the lake (no, nobody stole them over break!! People must be rich to miss such an opportunity as that) We plan to add one, possibly two new windsurfers as well as another dinghy to the fleet before the year is up. Anyone with contacts regarding second hand equipment please call Ken. Also, anyone wishing to buy a Coronado (or steal one), feel free to have it appraised - there is a plentiful selection scattered across the hill with various hull configurations including the radical "Log through the bottom" perfected by the masters of nature last year. This design fared well during the last America's Cup, sinking three straight races. Also for those news watchers, rumors that placed CNN's Bernie "Under The Table" Shaw huddling under hull number 5 are completely false.

Sailing (oh yeah - that's what this newsletter is supposed to be about) will resume on Friday February 15th. Club days are planned for Tuesdays and Fridays. Remember that you are free to organize outings of your own, just be sure to call the lake in advance (and absolutely no major felonies on Lake property. We mean it.) This date is tentative depending on the weather - in other words if we get the blizzard that the farmer's almanac is predicting for February, we will skate instead...Just remember each skate must be equipped with at least one life vest; and no skating under the influence.

Sailing Club Patron Saint of the Semester: Hilary Igleheart of Mount Gay Rum. Keep them free samples rolling!!!!

Alright folks, that's about it. So just remember.....be careful out there....
